928230

INDEX to the ESSAYS, POETRY, REVIEW, HISTORY, &c.

digeſted in an alphabetical order.

N. B. R. at the end of the article indicates REVIEW.

ESSAYS, POETRY, &c.

Page.

ADDRESSES, animadverſions on their different ſtiles, R. 84, 203
——— of the Devonſhire militia to his majeſty, R. 149
——— of the burgh of Montroſe, R. 150
——— of the town of Leith, R. 151
——— of the burgh of Irvine, R. ib
——— of the delegates of Georgia, R. 209
——— of the burgh of the Dundee, R. 210
——— of the city of Aberdeen, R. 14
——— of the houſe of lords, R. ib
——— his majeſty's anſwer, 41
——— of the houſe of commons, R. 213
——— his majeſty's anſwer, 214
——— of the county of Argyle, R. 248
——— of the county of Air, R. ib
——— of the burgh of Air, R. 242
——— of the county of Linlithgow, R. 243
——— of the burghs of Dunfermline, Inverkeithing and Culroſs, R. ib ——— of the inhabitants of Boſton to gen. Gage, R. 276
——— his excellency's anſwer 277
——— of his majeſty's council, R. ib
——— his excellency's anſwer 278
Alcides, See Grafton.
Aletheophilus on ſophiſtry 35
——— on the queſtion, Whether Britain has a right to tax her colonies? 193
——— Tom Telltruth's anſwer in their favour 289
——— replied to by a North Briton 353
——— his arguments likewiſe refuted by Sam. Seektruth 386
Algiers, dey of, anecdote of 368
America, queries of a True N. Briton relative to our diſputes with 85
——— a Barber's difficulties thereanent 141
——— Moderatus on taxing it 168
——— letters on its convulſed ſtate 172, 196
——— plan for ſuppreſſing the rebellion there, R. 179
——— account of a commiſſion ſent there by Charles II. 397
Americans, philoſophical enquiries concerning them 69
Americans, on their terms of ſubmiſſion to Britain 140
Americans, Juvenis on their unreaſonable demands 198
Bacon, Sir F. his literary character 261
Bathurſt, Earl, memoirs of 65
Bendyſh, Mrs, curious anecdotes of 262
Bligh, gen. anecdote of 80
Boſton, the rev. Mr, criticiſm on his works by P. Primitive 324 the Britiſh conſtitution, account of 170
——— privileges of the lords ib
——— of the commons 199
——— prerogative of the king 232
Challenge, a curious Turkiſh one 204
Charles V. anecdote of 368
Chriſtian Songs, ſtrictures on, R. 115
——— defended, R. 177
Clericus againſt ſubſcription to articles of faith 134
——— anſwered by Senex 201
——— likewiſe by Laicus 257, 389
a Dialogue between Plato and Swift 393 on Education 259
the new Election bill, debates of the freeholders of Mid-Lothian on, R. 116, 147
——— abſurdities in it pointed out 398
E——— k, Lord, anecdote of 112
*l'*Encyclopedie, extract from 298
Engliſh language, on the diſuſe of letter K in it 14
——— on the neglect of its ſtudy by the Scots 294
——— on the wretched mode of teaching it in Scotland 394
Engliſhmen, their fickle temper 206 ——— their paſſion for the title of Eſquire 78
the Fair American, a true ſtory 301
Farmers, See Juvenis.
Fidelis on pariſh patrons, and ſtudents of divinity 138 la Fontaine, the life of 361
Funerals, their expenſiveneſs 235 on Good manners, and the art of pleaſing 321
Grafton, D. of, Alcides' letter to 290
Granby, Marq. memoirs of 1 a Greenland Kalendar, thoughts on, R. 11
Harlequin on dreſs 20
——— on conjugal infidelity 36
Henry IV. of France, his remarkable letter to the Duc de Sully 11
Jeſſaminda's advice to Celia in a love caſe 1

INDEX.

an Indian war, its conſequences 175
Johnſon, Dr, See Scoto-Britannus.
Juvenis on the grandeur and pride of our farmers 77
King and parliament, remarks on their ſupremacy, R. 8, 83
Laicus, See Clericus.
Laws, penal, on their deficiency 108
Letter from a young girl to a friend 364
Liberty, See Proculeius.
Liſt of the Britiſh regiments, with their ſtations 268
Lithgow's travels 131, 230, 357
Loch-Lomond, Pennant's deſcription of 7
Lotteries, on the preſent rage for 366
——— adventurers, caution to 174
Macklin, comedian, memoirs of 226
Maid ſervants of Edinburgh, their immorality 33
Militia, propoſal for one in Scotland 236
——— arguments in favour of one 293, 387
——— on the laws of that in England, and expence of a Scots one 334
Momus, the humours of a wet Sunday 142 a Moraliſt on ſwearing 295
Mountſtewart, Lord, addreſs to 321
Naſh, Richard, anecdote of 141
Notary, his preſence not neceſſary at a poinding 135
Obſervator on the ſublimity of public worſhip 139
Omiah, account of 5
Party, the power of, a moral tale 67
——— on its preſent ſtate 172
Philadelphia, Burnaby's deſcription of, R. 51
Philocrines on a ſurvey of the roads through Scotland 291
Philo-Pantheon, his ſighty lucubrations 76
——— card to Mr Small 105
Pitcairn, Dr, anecdote of 80
Primitive, See Boſton.
Proculeius on modern liberty 10, 45, 102
a Projector, his new plan for tranſporting troops to America 392
Pruſſia, on the amazing increaſe of its military power 28
Public ſpirit, on the want of it in the gentlemen of Aberdeenſhire 163, 225
the Queriſt, See Woolen manufacture ——— on an aſſociation for killing foxes 302
Raynall, abbe, his account of the ſettlements of the Cape of Good Hope 143
——— of the Embden company 107
——— of the Spaniſh ſettlements in the Philippine iſlands 129, 161
Reflections on the comparative happineſs of individuals 297
Roach, capt. trial of 399
Roads, See Philocrines.
Rogers, major, anecdote of 144
Rudd, Mrs, proceedings on the relevancy of her trial 36
Scoto-Britannus, his ſtrictures on Dr Johnſon's tour 97
Scott, J. on the culture of potatoes and quick hedges 234
Seektruth, See Aletheophilus.
Senex, See Clericus.
a Shopkeeper, his compliment 396
Simplex on ſcepticiſm 355
Small pox, letter on their extirpation 71
Sophia, love queries by 368
Sterne, Mr, letter from 296
——— memoirs of his life and family 326
——— on the ſeduction of a young lady 329
Stuart, Hector, his letter to Mr Wilkes 105
Suffocation, extraordinary recovery from 137
Telltruth, See Aletheophilus.
Thoughts on the improvement of the mind and manners 59
Titus, See Walker.
Tucker, rev. Dr, his ſcheme of ſeparation with the colonies 330
Walker, rev. Mr, attacked by Titus 73
——— Mr Walker's defence 165
Waſhington, gen. anecdotes of 144, 174 a Watering place, pleaſures of 237 a Welſh ſchoolmaſter, curious letter from 336
Whatever is is right, a jeu d'eſprit 144
Wilkes, See Stuart.
the Woolen manufacture, queries on, by a peer of the realm 1, 39
——— anſwer to one of them 80
——— a Shopkeeper on the low ſpirit of the Scots for trade 99
——— corroborated by a Tradeſman 397
——— on its increaſe at Dumfries 204
——— at Aberdeen ib
——— queries relative to its ſtate in the latter county 225

POETRY.

Abington, Mrs, Thalia's addreſs to 378
Addreſs to the mayor of Berwick 113
Advice from a lady 377
the Ant and graſshopper ib
Autumn, an ode 207
Braid, the hermitage of 15
Character of Miſs M—— C—— 146
——— verſes to the author 240
Colin and Phœbe ib

INDEX.

the Counter addreſſers 149
the Diſagreement 240 the Diſappointment 113
the Diſtreſſed lover 402
Elegy on leaving Dunkeld 176
Epitaph on capt. Forbes of New 49 ——— on ——— 144
——— on a gentleman intending to to be buried on a high hill near the church 208
——— on George Faulkener printer ib a Farewel to London, by Mr Pope 113
Friendſhip, verſes on 271
an Incident in high life 304
Inconſtant Chloe 338
Inſcription intended for ſome old heads taken down from the croſs of Edinburgh 81
——— Latin one for the new ſchool of Crieff 241
——— tranſlation 273
Invocation to ſleep 207
ad Ludimagiſtros Scotiæ ib
——— tranſlation 49
Marriage, an ode 337
a new Maſon Song 338
to Melancholy 402
Mercator, verſes to 272
——— his choice 337
the Optimiſt 303
the Poet's prayer 50
Pope's welcome from Greece, by Mr Gay 145
the Preſent age 114
on Pretended friendſhip 403
Prologue to the comedy of Bon Ton 377 the Sailor's farewel 82
a Song in the farce of May Day 208 the young Surgeon's choice 81 a Town Eclogue 403
the Travellers 176
a true Tale, by Dr Parnell 239
Verſes copied from the window of an obſcure lodging houſe in London 17
Verſes to Miſs N K. of D. 49
——— on the marriage of a lady 82
——— by Mr Pope on an Italian finger's leaving the ſtage ib
——— burleſqued by Dr Arbuthnot ib ——— Latin verſes on the partridges ſeen at the croſs of Edinburgh 176
——— on a curate 241
——— written by S. Jenyns in Ld Oxford's library 272
——— on the departue of a favourite lady ib ——— to the rev. Sir Harry Moncrieffe 304 ——— on the loſs of N. America 338
——— on viewing the concluſion of the ancient Rhine 377
——— to the Publiſher ib, 403
——— ſent to a gentleman with a piece of cheeſe, by a lady 378
Winter, an elegy 303
LITERARY CATALOGUE 406

HISTORY.

AMERICA.—Reſolutions of the continental congreſs upon a motion paſſed in the H. of C. " to give up the right of taxation upon the colonies contributing their proportion to the common defence," 17. Genuine copies of three intercepted letters from Meſſrs Harriſon and Adams 20, 22. Letter from gen. Gage to Lord Dartmouth, incloſing one from Waſhington to the general, with his excellency's anſwer 23. Waſhington's reply 339. Genuine letters of Waſhington's aid-de camp and ſecretary, giving an account of the ſtate of the two armies 24. Addreſs of the mayor of New York to gov. Tryon 25. The governor's anſwer 26. The king's troops in a bad ſtate ib. Quarrel between adm. Greaves and commiſ. Hallowell 27. The French at Martinico apprehenſive of a rupture with G. Britain ib. Falſe report of a reſolve of the congreſs to be independent of the mother country ib. Skirmiſh off Long Iſland between ſome whale boats and ſeveral of the king's cutters 28. Shameful indolence of the Engliſh admiralty 55. The Americans excited by truly ridiculous reports from England ib. Major Rogers joins the provincials 56. Character of commiſ. Hallowell ib. Inſtance of American cruelty ib. Situations of the two armies at Boſton ib. Conditions to be given to voluntiers in the Royal Highland Emigrants 88. The Indians of the Six Nations to act againſt the Boſtonians 87, 88. Skirmiſhes between the king's troops and rebels ib. Card from gen. Putnam to major Moncrieffe 89. The people of Quebec alarmed at gen. Schuyler's entry into Canada 119. Some tranſports with troops ſail from Boſton for Rhode-Iſland ib. Take poſſeſſion of the ſame ib. Lord Dunmore ſeizes two veſſels at Norfolk 120. 2000 rebels entrench near Watertown ib. The Roſe man of war fires upon the town of Stonington ib. Engagemen between ſome of his majeſty's cutters and two American ſchooners off Providence 121. Skirmiſhes at Lighthouſe Iſland ib. Several officers killed at Charleſtown ib The people of New York carry off ſome cannon from a battery there ib. Four letters from capt. Vandeput to the magiſtrates of New York 122. Gov. Tryon holds a conference with the congreſs of that city 123. Proceedings of the Virginian committee 152. Liberty tree at Boſton cut down 153. Acts of the general aſſembly of Maſſachuſett's Bay ib. The committee of Maryland violate their act of non-importation ib. Great damage done by a ſtorm along almoſt all the American coaſt ib. Duel between two officers of the king's troops 180. A colonel broke for cowardice ib. Accounts of a ſharp ſkirmiſh between the rebels and a party of regulars near St John's 216, 217. Ethan Allen taken priſoner ib. 248. An informer hanged by the rebels 249. Letter of a member of the Annapolis convention anent the proceedings of the ſeveral committees throughout the colonies 311. Lord Dunmore ſeizes ſome printing materials at Norfolk 313. The men of war ſtationed at New-York take four veſſels laden with ſalt ib. Gen. Waſhington's addreſs to the people of Canada 339. The rebels take poſſeſſion of ſome forts in Canada, but repulſed with great loſs at Montreal 344. The members of the congreſs diſagree about their plan of operations 345. Gov. Lord W. Campbell retires on board the Tamer man of war 382. Addreſs of the committee of Charlestown on the occation of it ib. His excellency's anſwer 383. Gov. Martin's magazine diſcovered 384. Letter from Dr Franklin to his friend in London ib. The non ſubſcribers to the N. Carolina aſſociation to be diſarmed 407. A judge tarred and feathered ib. The rebels take 13 waggons of proviſions going to St John's 408. A tranſport run aſhore and ſeized by the rebels ib. Two reduced regiments at Boſton incorporated into others and the officers ſent home ib.

DENMARK.—His majeſty prohibits the exportation of military ſtores to America 313.

ENGLAND.—Foreign intelligence 30. The French ſoldiers pay to be augmented ib. Some French engineers embark for the E. Indies ib. Major Rogers joins the Provincials with a body of Indians ib, 124. Lady Gage and 170 ſick ſoldiers arrive from Boſton ib. Several voluntiers ſet ſail for Boſton ib. Dr R———n ſuſpends his Hiſtory of America 31. Lady Gage waits on her majeſty ib. A Jacobite impriſoned ib.—Foreign news 57. Four tribes of Indians join the Americans ib. A vaſt army to be ſent to America ib. Inſtructions from the freeholders of Middleſex to their repreſentatives ib. Proceedings at Guildhall on the election of a lord mayor 59. Letter from John Hancock to the livery of London 60. Addreſs from the livery to the electors of Great Britain ib. A forger on the Scots Bank apprehended 62.—Foreign advices 89. Deſcription of Long Iſland ib. Gen. Putnam orders the exchange of priſoners to be equally man for man 90. Gen. Clinton defeats the rebels ib. Several American veſſels taken by an Engliſh frigate ib. Some merchants draw up a plan of reconciliation ib. Numbers of Scots and Iriſh emigrants returning home ib. Plan of the miniſtry for governing America ib. Generous ſcheme of the courtiers to aſſiſt his majeſty againſt the Americans ib. Alderman Hart refuſes to ſign the inſtructions of the Middleſex freeholders to their members 91. Reſolutions of the London Aſſociation to ſupport the liberty of the preſs ib. A great quantity of cabbage, potatoes, &c. contracted for to ſend to Boſton ib. The Phœnix man of war, with eight tranſports, arrive at Corke to take in troops for America ib. Stagnation of buſineſs at Plymouth ib. The diſagreement among the judges at Bengal cemented 92.—Foreign articles 123. Letter from a merchant in N. Carolina to his correſpondents in London ib. Petition of the merchants and manufacturers of Briſtol ib.—Foreign affairs 154. The people of Martinico offer a premium of 50,000 l. for a ſure method to deſtroy the ants ib. Spirited letter of Capt. Macartney to the mayor of Norfolk ib. The mayor's anſwer 155 Reſolves of the committee of that town relative to the captain's letters ib. Lord Dunmore ſeizes two veſſels for government ſervice ib. The port of N. Carolina ſhut up ib. Skirmiſh between the militia of New-York and the crew of a man of war ib.

A great quantity of gun-powder ſhipped at Oſtend and Dunkirk for the uſe of the Americans ib. Deſtructive proceedings of the committee of Georgia ib. Two powerful French officers offer to aſſiſt gen. Gage with 40,000 Indians 156. Three officers, with 45 packages of cloathing taken by the rebels ib. The gentleman, whoſe eſtate was deſtroyed by the battle of Bunker's hill applies for ſome recompence, but refuſed ib. A military order of merit to be inſtituted by government ib. 8000 Heſſians to embark for England ib. The D. of Argyle lays before his majeſty a ſtate of the forces in Scotland ib. Alderman Plomer ſends the vote of thanks of the livery of London to Lord Effingham 157. His lordſhip's anſwer ib. Some ſhip carpenters ordered to embark for Nova Scotia ib. Stephen Sayre, Eſq; taken into cuſtody for high treaſon 180, 181, 182, 183. Bailed 184. The King's Speech ib. Proceedings of the H. of L. on American affairs 185. Debate in the H. of C. on an addreſs to the throne 186. Pathetic ſpeech of Ld. North thereon 190. The addreſs carried ib. Memorial from the freeholders of Nova Scotia laid before the houſe 188. The Americans deſtroy Port Johnſton and burn the commander's houſe 190. A party of provincials defeated by gen. Carleton 191. Mr Wilkes's ſpeech in the H. of C. on a motion to addreſs his majeſty 214. The D. of Richmond proteſts againſt the addreſs to his majeſty 217. Debate of the lords on the introduction of foreign troops into the kingdom 218, 244, 273, 305. Copy of a proteſt entered after the above debate 246. A petition preſented from the Ducheſs of Kingſton ib. Bill to enable his majeſty, in caſes of rebellion, to aſſemble the militia ib. A ſupply agreed to 219. Reſolution to warrant the introduction of foreign troops ib. Debate on the army eſtimates for 1776 ib. 220. 28,000 ſeamen voted for 1776 221. Ld. Barrington preſents the army eſtimates ib. Debate on the militia bill 26. Ld. Dartmouth appointed lord privy ſeal 223. Lord Pitt arrives from Quebec ib. Gov. Penn examined by the H. of L. 249. Debate on a conciliatory petition from the congreſs 251. Debate in the H. of C. on a bill to indemnify his majeſty's miniſters who adviſed the introduction of foreign troops into the Engliſh dominions 252. A motion for treating with the congreſs rejected 253. Lord Barrington preſents the army eſtimates for 1776 ib. Court promotions 255, 283. Five motions of the D. of Grafton anent the ſtate of the Britiſh forces rejected 279, 280. Abſtract of the army eſtimates 280. Debate on the land tax 281. Sir G. Suttie moves for leave to bring in a bill to preſerve the game in Scotland ib. Debate on Mr Burke's motion to repeal the American acts ib. The agents for the Ducheſs of Kingſton and her proſecutor examined in the H. of L. 283. American intelligence ib. Skirmiſhes betwixt the rebels and king's troops near St John's ib. And at Boſton 284. A party of rebels carry off ſome cattle from Governor's Iſland ib. A brig taken by the provincials ib. Lord W. Campbell retires on board a man of war ib. Gov. Tryon's letter to the mayor of New-York relative to his being ſeized by the congreſs 285. His excellency aſſured of protection ib. Gen. Lee ſtabs a ſoldier ib. Inſtance of activity in Gen. Howe ib. Terrible ſtorm at Newfoundland 286. Prizes in the ſtate lottery ib. 318, 350, 380. Debate in the H. of C. relative to the land tax for 1776 307. Lord Mansfield's ſpeech relative to the trial of the Ducheſs of Kingſton 314. Motions thereanent 315. Debate on Lord North's bill for prohibiting all trade with the colonies 316, 346, 377. A ſum granted for defraying the charge of a regiment of Highlanders 317. Great damage done by a ſtorm of wind at Martinico ib. Two veſſels laden with military ſtores for America ſtopped at Cadiz 318. 39 commiſſioners choſen to negociate with the Americans ib. Col. Rainsford appointed governor of Cheſter caſtle 319. Capt. Roche admitted to bail ib. The indemnity bill rejected in the H. of L. 345. Mr Oliver's motion for an addreſs to his majeſty "to inform the houſe of the adviſers of coercive meaſures againſt America," rejected 346. Wilkes's ſpeech on this motion 340.—Grants for the year 1776 ib.—Foreign news 347. The Ruſſians preparing to commence war with the Swedes ib. Some Spaniſh men of war loſt in the ſtorms in the W. Indies 348. Account of a conference between the governor of Canada and ſome Indian chiefs ib.

The members of the congreſs at loggerheads ib, 414. Two of the king's ſtore ſhips taken by the provincials 349. Plan of operations againſt America in the ſpring ib. A tranſport with Hanoverian troops run aſhore in the Iſle of Rhe ib. Another on the north coaſt of Ireland ib. An Iſland in Holland with 3000 perſons loſt by a great inundation ib. Lord North's new American bill 372, 404. A Scots appeal heard in the H. of L. 376. Regulations for the trial of the Ducheſs of Kingſton 377. The Scots game bill read a ſecond time 379. Bill for encouraging adventurers to the north pole ib. Bills receive the royal aſſent ib.—Foreign articles ib. Two ſhips wrecked ib. An Engliſh frigate takes a Tuniſian pirate ib. American paragraphs ib. Lord Bute's youngeſt ſon appointed major of the 43d regiment 380. Account of the loſs of the Cranbrook Weſt Indiaman, Capt. Suttie, ib. [See France.] Account of Mrs Rudd's trial at the Old Bailey ib. Petition of the Ducheſs of Kingſton for delaying her trial 408. Her phyſicians examined 409. Debate concerning the place of trial ib. Debate of the lords on the American prohibiting bill 410. Mr Hartley's motion to addreſs the throne to ſtop the further proſecution of hoſtilities in America rejected 412.—American news 413. Gen. Carleton forms a body of troops to relieve St John's ib. Lord Dunmore ſeizes a vaſt number of ſmall arms and artillery in and about Norfolk 414. His majeſty allows to ſoldiers enliſting during the American rebellion their diſcharge at the end of three years ib. Quarrel between generals Waſhington and Lee ib. A floating battery belonging to the rebels blows up ib. Sir G. Macartney appointed governor of Grenada ib. Iriſh promotions ib.

FRANCE.—The Princeſs of Piedmont married at Chamberry 30. Account of the loſs of the Cranbrook Weſt Indiaman, Capt. Suttie maſter, on the French coaſt 311. Plan for augmenting the regular troops 344. Aſſembly of the clergy at Paris relative to the marriage of Proteſtants 382. The impoſt on wine to be lowered 407.

GERMANY.—Colonel Scheiter offers to raiſe a regiment for the Britiſh ſervice 29. The Hanoverian troops fond of it ib. Ordinance againſt alchymiſts 155. Benevolence of the emperor to his new Poliſh ſubjects 180. The electoral troops embark for England ib. Malefactors deprived of the right of aſylum in churches, &c. 278. A hoſpital erected for women who have been debauched 407.

HOLLAND.—A ſcheme formed to diſpoſſeſs the Dutch of the Iſland of Ceylon in the E. Indies 87. Account of the damage done by a terrible ſtorm throughout the province 313, 343.

IRELAND.——The lord lieutenant's ſpeech at the meeting of parliament 157. Horrible murder committed by the White Boys upon Mr Power of Barretſtown 383. Great rewards offered for their apprehenſion ib.

ITALY.—Terrible accident at an entertainment given by Cardinal Yorke 154. Generoſity of the Pope to a young Proteſtant painter 216. Free maſonry proſcribed throughout the kingdom of Naples 278.

POLAND.—The city of Dantzick tries to engage the different European powers in her behalf 313. Diſagreement among the members of the Permanent Council 382. Nine old women burnt for witches ib.

RUSSIA.—The court rejects the offer of ſome Perſian lords to come under the Ruſſian government 153.

SCOTLAND.—The Eaſt India company's treaſury very full 31. The American rebels convey into the camp of the troops ſome inflammatory handbills ib. Cloathing ſhipped at Greenock for the Royal Highland Emigrants 32. Proceedings of the circuit court at Glaſgow ib. A tea tree in full flower ib. Proceedings of the circuit court at Inverneſs 63. The preſbytery of Strathbogie pronounce another ſentence in the caſe of the elders of Keith ib. The D. of Buccleugh viſits ſome of the woolen manufactures at Muſſelburgh ib. Meeting of the freeholders of Mid-Lothian to conſider of the new election bill ib. A pickpocket ib. The merchants of Glaſgow averſe to addreſs his majeſty 92. Trials at the circuit court at Perth ib. At Air 93. At Dumfries ib. Account of the dreadful inundations in Eaſt Lothian ib, 94, 125. Two horſes ſwallowed by a remarkable chaſm of the earth ib. G. Graham, Eſq; arrives from India 95. Palladio on the propoſal for a South Bridge ib. Philoſophical account of a water ſpout 126. Quotation from an old MS. hiſtory relating to a flood at Haddington ib. Meeting of Scots cloathed gentlemen at Fortune's 127. Terms of subscription for the E. Lothian woolen manufactory ib. The church of Libberton robbed ib. A smuggler carried into Leith ib. 1832 yards of brown linen condemned by the trustees, and sent to the charity work-house ib. The corporations of Edinburgh unanimous against the south bridge 128. Messrs Mudie and Mitchell chosen magistrates for Leith ib. A covey of partridges alight at the Cross of Edinburgh ib. Address of the city of Edinburgh to his majesty 158. Great rains in Aberdeenshire 159. Air races ib. Seven fine English rams arrive at Dalkeith ib. An orrery to be purchased for the university of Edinburgh ib. Improvements in the piers of the bridge over the Clyde leading to Douglas ib. Humanus on abuses in the collection of the cess 160. Card to him 192. Shipwrecks on the English coast 191. Proposal to distill from potatoe apples ib. Ministers settled at St Cuthbert's and Dalmeny ib. Lord Mountstuart moves for a Scots militia in the H. of C. 223. Dreadful storm and shipwrecks off Holyhead 224. A matrimonial elopement ib. Field officers appointed for gen. Fraser's regiment ib. Lord Glencairn and other Scots gentlemen arrive from Bergen ib. Appeal Alexander contra Paterson decided by the H. of L. 255. A Carron vessel wrecked off Dunbar 256. Terrible inundations at Arbroath ib. A sloop run ashore at Cramond ib. The ports shut against importation of grain ib. Two prizes brought in to Leith ib. —Anecdote of gen. Gage and and the American congress 287. Shipwrecks ib. Great floods in the river Clyde 288. Dr Baillie elected professor of divinity in the college of Glasgow ib. Appeal Greig and Bruce 319. Amount of the subscription at London for relief of the soldiers' widows ib. A poll and land tax ordered by the congress for support of the provincial army 320. A new dry-dock opened at Leith ib. Mr Ferguson to succeed Commissary Smollet ib. The foundation stone of a building for the royal college of physicians laid in the New Town ib. The theatre-royal fitted up for the Free Masons on St Andrew's day ib. A vessel wrecked off the Uist Island 350. Account of the frauds of an English farmer ib. The royal college of physicians chuse their office bearers for 1776 ib. Receipt for the Influenza 351. Two tobacco ships arrive in the Clyde 383. The Scots militia bill ordered to be printed ib. The rebels open a large floating battery on Mystic River, but it blows up, and they are defeated ib. Capt. Erskine appointed a lieut. colonel in India 364. Mr Hunter elected professor of humanity at St Andrew's ib. The whole American continent unanimous in the cause of liberty 415. Shipwrecks ib. The cause betwixt the rev. Mr Thomson and Mr Scotland of Dumfermline decided ib.

SPAIN.—The marine of the Barbary states in the Mediterranean much reduced 216. A great treasure discovered in a village in Peru 279. Warlike preparations going on in the different ports ib. Some Spanish and Dutch men of war block up several ports of the Moors ib. The latter lay siege to Melille 344, 345. An immense powder magazine blown up near Carthagena 345. The governor of Buenos Ayros marches to defend Montevideo against the Portuguese 407.

SWEDEN.—His majesty establishes a free port in the province of Bahus to induce the Dutch to trade there 180. He breaks off the annual present usually given to the Emperor of Morocco 314.

TURKEY.—A suspension of hostilities takes place between the Persians besieging Bassora and the Turks 154. Chiek Daher beheaded 216. Bloody engagement between two Maltese frigates and three Turkish vessels ib. Prince Repnin makes a magnificent entry into Constantinople 343.

WEST INDIES.—Dispute between the council and assembly of St Vincent's 28. The governor dissolves the assembly ib. Resolves of the house of assembly relative to the American disputes ib. Gov. Young dissolves the assembly 29.

INDEX.

MARRIAGES, BIRTHS, DEATHS, PROMOTIONS.

MARRIAGES.

Belſches 384
Blomberg 128
Browne 64
Campbell 32
Carnegy ib
Chamber 320
Cochran 288
Delgaty 352
Douglas 32
Drummond 351
Fleming 32
Gordon 256, 320
Hamilton 224
Hancock 128
Herron 288
Horion, Cſs. 256
Jackſon ib
Kilpatrick 320
Legertwood ib
Leinſter, D. 288
Leſlie 384
Marjoribanks 351
Milbank 320
Milnes 351
Niſbet 128
Park 64
Pearſon 32
Quincy 128
Robinſon 256
Rock 32
Salm-Salm, Pr. 256
Seton 320
Spence 32
St George 288
Tait 352
Trotter 256
Wardrop 351
Wilſon 224
Worſley 32

BIRTHS.

Athole, Dſs. 320
Beauchamp, Cſs. 224
Boſwall 96
Cochrane 416
Dalrymple 64
Douglas 224
Grafton, Dſs. 160
Grimſtone, Vſs. 64
Hinchinbrook, Vſs. 320
Homburg 128
Hope 288
Livingſtone 352
M'Donald 128
Paget 256
Portland, Dſs. 96

DEATHS.

Addie 128
Aitchiſon 352
Aliſon 416
Armour 288
Bathurſt, E. 32
Bligh ib
Brander 256
Cadwallader 320
Carnegy 224
Caſſilis, E. 352
Cholmondely 160
Chriſtopher 416
Combes ib
Craig 224
Crawford 416
Cumming ib
Dawſon 352
Deas 256
Dingwall 128
Dodds 352
Dowlah, Sujah 32
Elleſton 384
Elphinſtone 320, 384
Ewart 96
Falconar 64
Fairholm 96
de Felix 160
Fiſher 64
Fitzmaurice 128
Forbes 64, 288
Forreſter ib
Foulis 32
Fraſer 384
Gillon 160
Gordon 96
Græme 224
Graham 288, 352
Gray 288
Haberſham 128
Hawkinſon 416
Hay 288
Hempe 128
Hepburn 96
Herbert 32
Heſkith 352
Hill 320
Inglis 160, 224
Johnſton 352
Irvine 32, 288
Kenrick 224
Kerry, Cſs. 192
Lauder 128
Lind 32
Lorimer 384
MacDonell, E. 160
de Maſſow ib
Maxwell 416
M'Kenzie 384
Mecklenburgh, Pſs. 128
Mein 288
Menzies 384
Melmoth 192
Moodie 352
Moleſworth 192
Murray 160
Oliphant 288
Oſburn ib
Palatine, Pr. 320
Penny 288
Phipps 96
Pope ib
Potts 224
Preſton ib
Randolph 416
Reid 192
Robertſon ib, 288, 352
Rogers 384
Saunders ib
Scott 96, 384
Spry 416
Smith 192
Smollet 256
Stewart 32
Sinclair 416
Suaſſo, Ld. 128
Tait 384
Tankerville, Cſs. 128
Traill 192
Trautſon, Pr. 320
Trotter 416
Tod 288
Turner 384
Waterſleben 160
Whichcote 192
Whitmore 96
Williamſon 352
Wood 192
Wright 416
Young 192

CIVIL PROMOTIONS 64

MILITARY PROMOTIONS 352

THE